

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 128:00 - 9:30 p.m.*2021 College Office panel featuring Jeff Selingo

Click here to register and submit questions in advance.

Join us for a webinar with Jeff Selingo, a leading expert on the college admissions process and New York Times best-selling author of Who Gets In and Why. Our panel will also include three college admission professionals: Stephen Farmer, provost for enrollment, University of Virginia; Ronné Turner, vice provost for admissions, Washington University (St. Louis); and Eric Maguire, vice president for enrollment, Wake Forest University. Together, the speakers will offer a retrospective on the last admissions cycle, which was the most competitive and unpredictable in memory, as well as thoughts on future trends in college admission.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 137:30 - 8:30 p.m.*Student well-being webinar

Zoom link will be shared prior to the event

Please join us to welcome Suniya Luthar, Ph.D., of Authentic Connections, back to School "virtually" to continue the dialogue. Authentic Connections is a science-based organization committed to maximizing well-being in school communities and a leader in assessing and addressing stress within high-achieving communities and working with parents, faculty, administrators, and students to address it.
